

The African Think Tank
invites you to attend an African Youth fundraising dinner on the

29th November 2007

Venue: Ormond College Dining Hall
Address: 49 College Crescent, Parkville
Time: 7.00pm - 11.00pm
Cost: $100 per ticket (inc GST)

The main objectives of this fund raising dinner are to:

- assist in addressing the chronic high rate of African youth failure at primary and secondary schools in Victoria;
- minimize the current high levels of youth alienation among African refugee communities resulting increasing rates of school dropouts, crime and substance abuse;
- minimize the possibility of alienated and frustrated youth being influenced by fundamentalist groups and recruited to participate in unlawful activities such as sabotage and terrorism
- Contribute to the building and maintenance of self-reliant, sustainable and viable African communities, able to contribute fully to mainstream Victoria's socio-economic development

The evening will be a feast of African Culture with special highlights including:

- Special guest speaker the Reverend Tim Costello
- A performance from Australia's leading Sudanese Comedian – Mujahid Ahmed - as seen on Andrew Denton's Enough Rope
- Vibrant African sounds from Super Afro Mandinke comprising charismatic Guinean drummer King Marong and a group of Australia's premier musicians and ambassadors of cultural exchange.
- A delectable meal;
- A silent auction and more!
